

west midlands
police and crime
commissioner

BUSINESS SUMMIT 2016

Monday 18 January 2016 6-9pm

Maple House, 150 Corporation Street, Birmingham B4 6TB

PROGRAMME

- From 5.30 pm Registration and light buffet supper
- 6.20 Welcome
Chairperson Brendan Connor, Business Lead for the Strategic Police and Crime Board
- 6.25 “Crime is not falling, it is changing”
David Jamieson, Police and Crime Commissioner, West Midlands
- 6.40 2016/17 Budget and a new Economic Development Strategy. Followed by question and answer session
Mark Kenyon, Chief Finance Officer
- 7.10 WMP2020 – the latest from the strategic partnership with Accenture, providing the next generation of policing in the West Midlands
Chief Supt. Sally Bourner, WMP2020 Programme.
- 7.40 Keynote Presentations on cybercrime
Introduced by Deputy PCC Yvonne Mosquito.
- ❖ West Midlands Police response to cybercrime, at the local, regional and national level.
Chief Inspector Iain Donnelly, Senior Intelligence Manager, WMP
 - ❖ So you think you're safe? How to protect your business by reformed £30 million cyber criminal, Tony Sales.
Tony Sales, Britain's "greatest fraudster" (retired)

8.25 Question time to the panel

Your opportunity to ask a question of the cybercrime speakers or to comment on your priority measures for the PCC and West Midlands Police to reduce business crime.

Facilitated by Brendan Connor

8.55 Closing remarks

Brendan Connor

9.00 Event closes.