

STOP AND SEARCH – OVERVIEW OF POWERS

Three powers make up those 'frequently used' for stop and search by West Midlands Police.

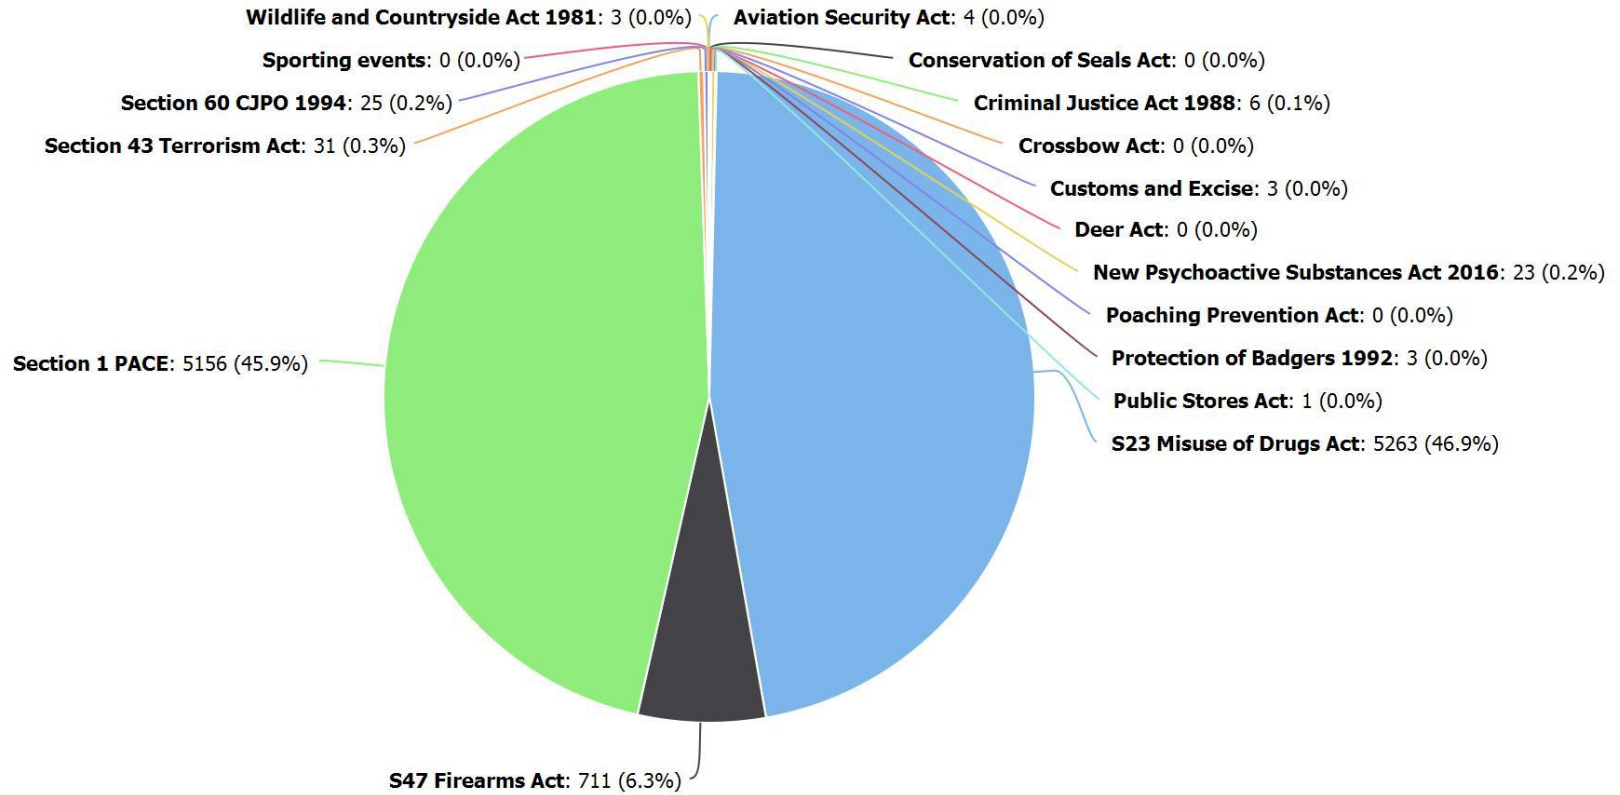

These are s23 of the Misuse of Drugs Act, s1 of PACE, and s47 of the Firearms Act.

Collectively, 99.1% of recorded stop and searches in the West Midlands invoke one of these three powers.

POWERS FREQUENTLY USED BY WEST MIDLANDS POLICE (6th December 2016 – 5th December 2017)
% of S&S	No. of S&S	Stop and Search Power	Description
46.9%	5,263	Section 23, Misuse of Drugs Act 1971 (MDA)	Provides that a constable may search a person suspected of being in possession of a controlled drug and detain them for the purpose of the search. They may also search any vehicle or vessel in which they suspect the drug may be found, and can require the person in control of the vehicle or vessel to stop it for that purpose. This provision specifies that the person must be suspected of being in possession of the drug, not merely to have used it or been present during its use by others. With respect to a vehicle, the provision similarly requires the officer to suspect that the drug may be found in it.
45.9%	5,156	Section 1, Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 (PACE)	Provides police officers with the power to stop and search any person, vehicle, or anything which is in or on a vehicle, for stolen or prohibited articles, points and blades, or fireworks. Prohibited articles include offensive weapons and articles with which a person is going equipped to steal or cause criminal damage.
6.3%	711	Section 47, Firearms Act 1968	If a constable has reasonable cause to suspect a person of having a firearm with him in a public place, or to be committing or about to commit, elsewhere than in a public place, an offence relevant for the purposes of this section, the constable may search that person and may detain him for the purpose of doing so. With the same suspicion the constable can stop and search a vehicle.

0.2%	25	Section 60, Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 (CJPO)	If a police officer of or above the rank of inspector reasonably believes— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) that incidents involving serious violence may take place in any locality in his police area, and that it is expedient to give an authorisation under this section to prevent their occurrence, b) that persons are carrying dangerous instruments or offensive weapons in any locality in his police area without good reason, This power applies to a specific geography for a specific amount of time, during which police officers can stop and search people without needing to evidence reasonable cause or suspicion.

As simple possession is not a PSA offence, there is no power to search for simple possession.
0.1%	6	Section 139B, Criminal Justice Act 1988	A constable may enter school premises and search those premises and any person on those premises for knives (specific details in the legislation) or any offensive weapon within the meaning of section 1 of the Prevention of Crime Act 1953. This may be done if the constable has reasonable grounds for suspecting that an offence relating to this Act is being, or has been, committed.
Other powers listed below are invoked for less than 0.1% of the stop and searches conducted by West Midlands Police.
