THE FOLLOWING ADDITIONAL BODY:

(27) The National Police Chiefs Council

(collectively the Responsible Chief Officers, Responsible Policing Bodies and Additional Body will hereinafter be referred to as "the Parties")

BACKGROUND

- (A) The Parties to this Agreement recognise that the response to Terrorism by the Police Forces in England and Wales requires:
- a consistent approach across the UK;
 - effective engagement with the Security Service, which has the national lead for counter terrorism;
 - agreement on what the national police response should be in line with the current threat and risk;
 - Police Forces to take account of the legislative framework and broader policing landscape;
 - agreement on how much funding is required from the Government to deliver an effective national response and how funding is allocated;
 - effective command and control of Counter Terrorism and Allied Matters;
 - effective and efficient management of Counter Terrorism Assets and Resources in all Police Force areas;
 - common standards and processes and equipment that are fit for purpose and interoperable across the UK;
 - a single voice when dealing with key stakeholders; and
 - that a significant proportion (but not the entirety) of the national effort is delivered by the Police Forces who are party to this Agreement.
- (B) Subject to clause C below, for the purposes of this Agreement the "Responsible Policing Body (Responsible PCC)" means the Police and Crime Commissioners who are a party to this Agreement and who are currently charged with discharging responsibilities for Counter Terrorism Policing and Allied Matters. The terms "Local Police Forces" and "Local Policing Body (PCC)" mean the remainder of Police Forces and Police & Crime Commissioners in England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland who are not signatories. This Agreement does not change the responsibility of individual Police Forces or Police & Crime Commissioners for the discharge of Counter Terrorism responsibilities and Allied Matters.
- (C) The Parties agree that in relation to those Responsible Policing Bodies and Responsible Chief Officers who are together party to a Local Collaboration Arrangement relating to the collaborative discharge of responsibilities for Counter Terrorism Policing and Allied Matters within their local region, no individual Responsible Policing Body or Responsible Chief Officer has the legal authority under the terms of that Local Collaboration Arrangement to enter into this Agreement on behalf of that local region and as such all of those Responsible Policing Bodies and Responsible Chief Officers are individually entering into this Agreement. The parties to any Local Collaboration Arrangement hereby agree to appoint a Nominated Chief Officer and Nominated Policing Body who shall be responsible for acting on behalf of those other collaborating parties on certain matters which are identified under the terms of this Agreement.

- (D) Should the authority under which a Party has entered into this Agreement alter or cease, the relevant Responsible Chief Officer and Responsible Policing Body shall notify the Strategic Board and, where necessary, any additional chief officers or police and crime commissioners shall be invited to enter into this Agreement directly.
- (E) This Agreement is intended to describe national collaboration arrangements between the Responsible Policing Bodies and Responsible Chief Officers to respond to the serious and enduring threat of all forms of Terrorism and Allied Matters which exists in the United Kingdom. It is also intended to describe the activity conducted outside the United Kingdom by the Responsible Policing Bodies and Responsible Chief Officers to protect UK interests overseas and from threats to the UK emanating from outside the UK. This Agreement builds on the existing arrangements for national Counter Terrorism Policing and Allied Matters which is a key part of management of threat and risk from Terrorism and Allied Matters.
- (F) The Parties to this Agreement recognise that they collaborate together not just for the benefit of themselves, but also for the benefit of other chief officers and police and crime commissioners not party to this Agreement including in Scotland and in Northern Ireland. It is also recognised that there are 9 regional areas within England and Wales which coordinate responses to Counter Terrorism and Allied Matters.
- (G) The Parties to this Agreement recognise that Counter Terrorism Policing is delivered within a policing context that divides the UK into individual police force areas, each with their own Policing Body with responsibilities in respect of the chief officer and police force for that specific area as set out in the Police Act 1996 and the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011.
- (H) The Parties to this Agreement recognise that funding for Counter Terrorism and Allied Matters is primarily provided through Counter Terrorism Policing Grant. The grant has specific terms and conditions which include a list of Grant Deliverables. It is not intended that the obligations contained herein take precedence over any terms and conditions contained within any agreement for a Counter Terrorism Policing Grant. The Counter Terrorism Policing Grant covers Allied Matters such as investigations relating to War Crimes and Counter Espionage. A separate grant called the "Protective Security Grant" covers funding for protection for members of the Royal Family and their residences; and those holding certain Ministerial posts and other public figures and their residences. This Agreement does not cover the use by the Responsible Chief Officers and Responsible Policing Bodies of the Protective Security Grant.
- (I) The Parties to this Agreement recognise that the police response to the threat of Terrorism is, in part, as a contribution to the government's Counter Terrorism Strategy, known as CONTEST. The strategy is based on four key objectives:
- Pursue – identifying and disrupting terrorist activity;
- Prevent – working with communities, local authorities and other partners to identify and divert those involved in or who are vulnerable to radicalisation;
- Protect – policing the UK border, critical national infrastructure, civil nuclear sites, transport systems and the public;
- Prepare – leading the immediate response during or after a Terrorist attack.
- CONTEST deals with all forms of terrorism, except domestic terrorism in Northern Ireland, responsibility for which lies with the Secretary of State for Northern Ireland. The police response needs to address Terrorism and Allied Matters in all its forms, including but not limited to Northern-Ireland-related Terrorism.
- (J) The purpose of this Agreement is to make provision for and ensure effective collaboration between the Parties to this Agreement in respect of responses to Terrorism and Allied Matters taking account of the Strategic Policing Requirement and the Policing Protocol

Order 2011. This Agreement is not intended to hinder collaboration with the National Crime Agency and with Regional Organised Crime Units (ROCs).

- (K) This Agreement is made pursuant to Section 22A of the Police Act 1996 (as amended) which enables the chief officers of police, policing bodies and other parties to make an agreement about the discharge of functions by officers and staff where it is in the interests of the efficiency or effectiveness of their own and other police force areas. In entering into this Agreement the Parties have taken account of the statutory guidance for police collaboration published by the Home Office in October 2012 in exercise of the Home Secretary's power under section 23F of the Police Act 1996 to provide guidance about collaboration agreements and related matters.

- (L) The purpose of this Agreement is to describe the roles of the Parties to this Agreement in responding to threats of Terrorism. Without prejudice to the generality, it outlines the roles of the Senior National Coordinator, and the National Counter Terrorism Policing Headquarters. This Agreement sets out the relationship between those bodies and their commitment to each other in delivering the objectives of this Agreement as well as responding to the relevant elements of the Strategic Policing Requirement and the National Policing Requirement.

7. LIABILITIES

Agreed share of Liabilities in relation to the hosting of this Agreement

- 7.1 Subject to the remaining provisions of this paragraph 7 of Schedule 7 and in particular paragraph 7.6, the Parties agree that if a Liability arises in relation to the hosting of this Agreement as described in clause 12 and this Schedule 7 (which shall include any Liabilities of the Host Force arising out of the hosting and Support Services arrangements contemplated by this Agreement) such Liability shall be shared between the Responsible Policing Bodies in accordance with a Fair and Reasonable Proportion (as defined in clause 23.4.5). As the Host Force is providing the hosting services on a non profit making basis and for the mutual benefit of the Parties and in order to assist in the functions being performed pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the Parties agree that the Host Force shall not be solely liable for the Counter Terrorism Activities and Allied Matters or the hosting arrangement and that, save as set out in clauses 23, clause 24 all Liabilities arising in relation to this Agreement shall be shared between the Responsible Policing Bodies in a Fair and Reasonable Proportion (as defined in clause 23.4.5) of the Liability as set out in this paragraph 7 of Schedule 7.
- 7.2 The Liability of the Host Force shall be as follows:

For the avoidance of doubt, this shall include where a Liability has arisen out of the Host Force acting negligently, in breach of any contract that has been entered into for the purposes of the hosting arrangement in paragraph 3 of this Schedule 7 in breach of Legislation or in breach of a statutory duty;
- 7.2.2 The Host Force shall be solely responsible for a Liability where the Strategic Board is able to prove that such Liability has arisen as a result of the Host Force not acting in accordance with good faith or not acting upon or in compliance with the reasonable and lawful instructions or decisions of the Chief Constables Council, the Chair of the Counter Terrorism Coordination Committee or the Strategic Board (as applicable);
- 7.2.3 Where a Liability arises in respect of which the Host Force has a direct contractual claim or any other claim against a third party (eg: in relation to the maintenance of facilities), the Host Force shall use all reasonable endeavours to pursue such claim against a third party.

Agreed Liabilities in relation to the Counter Terrorism Coordination Committee and NCTPHQ

- 7.3 Subject to clause 23, 24, paragraph 7.1 and paragraph 7.6 of this Schedule 7, if a Responsible Chief Officer becomes liable for the acts, omissions or negligence of a member of its Police Staff or a Police Officer under its Direction and Control while such Police Officer or member of Police Staff is seconded or attached or forming part of the decision making body for the Counter Terrorism Coordination Committee or NCTPHQ, each Responsible Policing Body shall be required to indemnify the Responsible Policing Body with Direction and Control of that Police Officer or member of Police Staff for a Fair and Reasonable Proportion (as defined in clause 23.4.5) of the Liability incurred by that Responsible Policing Body or Responsible Chief Officer (as appropriate).
- 7.4 If a Liability arises in relation to the acts, omissions or negligence of the Chair of the Counter Terrorism Committee (which shall be initially borne by the Responsible Chief Officer with Direction and Control of the Chair of the Counter Terrorism Committee) then as the Counter Terrorism Committee is one of the sub-committees established pursuant to the terms of the NPCC Collaboration Agreement such Liability shall be shared between the parties to the NPCC Collaboration Agreement pursuant to clause 21.2 of the NPCC Collaboration Agreement.

Recovery of Liabilities through the Counter Terrorism Policing Grant

- 7.6 Prior to any Liabilities being shared between the Responsible Policing Bodies pursuant to paragraphs 7.1 7.3 or 7.4 of this Schedule 7, the Parties shall procure that the NCTPHQ or otherwise agreed Party shall seek to recover any such Liabilities (where appropriate and possible) from the Counter Terrorism Policing Grant.
