Dear FOI Applicant,

Thank you for your correspondence received in this office on 31 July 2024 which we have interpreted as a freedom of information request, in which you asked:

'How much are you hoping to sell the Police station for (which is utterly against the wishes of local people but what do they matter) and how much will it cost to refurbish the houses in Anchorage Rd'

In response to your request, I can confirm that the cost that the OPCC hopes to sell the Police station for is exempt under Section 43(2) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, as release of such information may prejudice the commercial interests of a legal person, therefore causing harm to the service that they are able to provide. In line with S43(2), I am required to complete a Prejudice Test. Please find this test attached – 'FOI-77-Sutton Coldfield Police Station costs – Attachment 1'.

In regards to the refurbishment of houses on Anchorage Road, the OPCC does not currently hold this information, as work is still underway, and we are relying on external factors and organisations to support this process.
